

Privacy Policy

last updated: May 5, 2009

We Do Not Share Information with Anyone

The Sound of Rain will never sell, rent, or otherwise share your personal information, including your name, address, and email address, with any third party. In addition, Emily Carson and The Sound of Rain are and will remain unaffiliated with any other organization or teacher and so will never send announcements or solicitations of any kind on behalf of another.

What We Will Send You

The Sound of Rain sends approximately one to two emails per month announcing upcoming events, sharing recent teachings, and communicating other news relevant to the work of Emily Carson. In addition, we mail approximately one postcard every three months and an annual letter. You may elect to stop receiving our postal and/or e-mailings at any time; your request will be honored immediately.